A great night in and a good laugh in Sancta Maria Nursing Home with friends and neighbours from the community for their whist card night. [Co Meath]

Kilrush Nursing Home marked its 10th birthday with a special celebration for residents, their families, staff & members of the community - such an enjoyable day. Congrats team Kilrush. [Co Clare]

Laughter is the Music of the Heart

The bond between our residents and their carers is so special. St Colmcille’s Nursing Home resident Mary and healthcare assistant Rachel having a chin-wag and a giggle before going for dinner. [Kells, Co Meath]

Living With Purpose

Archerstown Nursing Home’s talented Charlotte giving a first glimpse of her new masterpiece. It’s wonderful to see our residents continuing the enjoy their hobbies and talents. [Co Kilkenny]

Spreading the Christmas Joy

Residents festive fun and tug o’ war over the Christmas crackers during their party in Kilcolgan Nursing Home & Memory Care Centre. [Co Galway]

Just the Most Darling Idea

For the season of gift-giving the caring staff of Kilmanhamwood Nursing Home each gifted a resident with a fun Christmas jumper, so everyone was #RudolphReady for the Home’s Christmas Party. [Kells, Co Meath]

Activities to Stimulate the Senses

St Martha’s Nursing Home residents Margaret, Sr Perpetua, Moss and Margaret enjoying a Sensory Art session with activities coordinator Deirdre and carer Caoimhe - offering stimulation and socialisation through tactile art activities. [Charleville, Co Cork]

Carer of the Year Award Success

Marie Moynihan of Kilfinny Nursing Home was awarded National Carer of the Year. The entire Mowlam team are whilst and immensely proud of your achievement. [Co Kerry]

Laughter is the Music of the Heart

The bond between our residents and their carers is so special. St Colmcille’s Nursing Home resident Mary and healthcare assistant Rachel having a chin-wag and a giggle before going for dinner. [Kells, Co Meath]

Living With Purpose

Archerstown Nursing Home’s talented Charlotte giving a first glimpse of her new masterpiece. It’s wonderful to see our residents continuing the enjoy their hobbies and talents. [Co Kilkenny]

Spreading the Christmas Joy

Residents festive fun and tug o’ war over the Christmas crackers during their party in Kilcolgan Nursing Home & Memory Care Centre. [Co Galway]

Just the Most Darling Idea

For the season of gift-giving the caring staff of Kilmanhamwood Nursing Home each gifted a resident with a fun Christmas jumper, so everyone was #RudolphReady for the Home’s Christmas Party. [Kells, Co Meath]

Activities to Stimulate the Senses

St Martha’s Nursing Home residents Margaret, Sr Perpetua, Moss and Margaret enjoying a Sensory Art session with activities coordinator Deirdre and carer Caoimhe - offering stimulation and socialisation through tactile art activities. [Charleville, Co Cork]

Carer of the Year Award Success

Marie Moynihan of Kilfinny Nursing Home was awarded National Carer of the Year. The entire Mowlam team are whilst and immensely proud of your achievement. [Co Kerry]

Laughter is the Music of the Heart

The bond between our residents and their carers is so special. St Colmcille’s Nursing Home resident Mary and healthcare assistant Rachel having a chin-wag and a giggle before going for dinner. [Kells, Co Meath]

Living With Purpose

Archerstown Nursing Home’s talented Charlotte giving a first glimpse of her new masterpiece. It’s wonderful to see our residents continuing the enjoy their hobbies and talents. [Co Kilkenny]

Spreading the Christmas Joy

Residents festive fun and tug o’ war over the Christmas crackers during their party in Kilcolgan Nursing Home & Memory Care Centre. [Co Galway]

Just the Most Darling Idea

For the season of gift-giving the caring staff of Kilmanhamwood Nursing Home each gifted a resident with a fun Christmas jumper, so everyone was #RudolphReady for the Home’s Christmas Party. [Kells, Co Meath]

Activities to Stimulate the Senses

St Martha’s Nursing Home residents Margaret, Sr Perpetua, Moss and Margaret enjoying a Sensory Art session with activities coordinator Deirdre and carer Caoimhe - offering stimulation and socialisation through tactile art activities. [Charleville, Co Cork]

Carer of the Year Award Success

Marie Moynihan of Kilfinny Nursing Home was awarded National Carer of the Year. The entire Mowlam team are whilst and immensely proud of your achievement. [Co Kerry]

Laughter is the Music of the Heart

The bond between our residents and their carers is so special. St Colmcille’s Nursing Home resident Mary and healthcare assistant Rachel having a chin-wag and a giggle before going for dinner. [Kells, Co Meath]

Living With Purpose

Archerstown Nursing Home’s talented Charlotte giving a first glimpse of her new masterpiece. It’s wonderful to see our residents continuing the enjoy their hobbies and talents. [Co Kilkenny]
Lots of fun in St Martha’s Nursing Home carving pumpkins for Halloween - residents really enjoyed the messy part of pulling out the insides! It was quite a sensory experience with the varying textures, colours and aromas. [Charleville, Co Cork]

Meet Peter & Pauline Pumpkin!

Senior Citizens Day at Dublin Zoo. Residents and staff from Kilmainhamwood Nursing Home had the most amazing day out. [Kells, Co Meath]

Out and About

A new resident-led Knitting Club has been formed at The Park Nursing Home - what a wonderful and peaceful way to spend a morning. [Co Limerick]

At Christmas, All Roads Lead Home

End Of Life Care Award success for Clinical Nurse Manager Sinead O’Donoghue and the Compassionate End of Life Group (CEOL) of Caherass Nursing Home. What an incredibly proud night for Director of Nursing Mary Carey and her team. [Co Limerick]

National Care Award Winners

Green Fingers

What a gorgeous photo! Lakes Nursing Home resident Bernadette gathering fresh parsley from the nursing home’s very own poly-tunnel. [Killaloe, Co Clare]

Cooking Up a Storm in Sligo

Residents helping Chef Angela make Christmas cakes - Mary took charge of mixing the ingredients. Fantastic work ladies! Living with purpose in Sligo Nursing Home. [Co Sligo]

Pet Therapy in Moycullen

Meet Harvey, the residential therapy dog in Moycullen Nursing Home. Such a gentle and joyful companion to our residents. [Co Galway]

Christmas Traditions

Walking by the Maple Court Nursing Home Activities Room we catch a whiff of fruit cake, pudding and sugar cookies baking and instantly feel we’re in a different time and place. It evokes warmth and happy nostalgic memories. [Westmeath]

Spooktacular Fun

Residents of Ennis Nursing Home absolutely love playing skittles - laughter and smiles always ensue. Such a fantastic activity and therapy to help with keeping fit and having fun. Play on Gerry. [Ennis, Co Clare]

Keeping Active

Residents of Ennis Nursing Home absolutely love playing skittles - laughter and smiles always ensue. Such a fantastic activity and therapy to help with keeping fit and having fun. Play on Gerry. [Ennis, Co Clare]

Joyous Photo

Liam and Donald from Lakes Nursing Home are always busy from making cookies to decorating. They are always on the go. [Killaloe, Co Clare]

Here Comes Santa Claus!

Adare & District Memory Care Centre Christmas party was a hoot - as they had all been SO good Santa came back to visit a second time during the holidays. Joy of Joys, we want Christmas to last all year round. Such a joyful evening surrounded by family and friends. [Adare, Co Limerick]

Fair Trade Christmas Card Competition

Representatives from Fair Trade came to Rossville House Nursing Home to present prizes to Ann and Robert. Congratulations to all. [Co Limerick]

Here Comes Santa Claus!

Oh the smell of home baking!

Christmas preparations start with cake and residents of St Martha’s Nursing Home are off to a flying start. For our residents Christmas isn’t Christmas until the traditional cake is distributed in the home and shared with their loved ones. [Charleville, Co Cork]

Meet Peter & Pauline Pumpkin!

Lots of fun at St Martha’s Nursing Home carving pumpkins for Halloween - residents really enjoyed the messy part of pulling out the insides! It was quite a sensory experience with the varying textures, colours and aromas. [Charleville, Co Cork]

Knitting Club

A new resident-led Knitting Club has been formed at The Park Nursing Home - what a wonderful and peaceful way to spend a morning. [Co Limerick]

Pet Therapy in Moycullen

Meet Harvey, the residential therapy dog in Moycullen Nursing Home. Such a gentle and joyful companion to our residents. [Co Galway]

Christmas Traditions

Walking by the Maple Court Nursing Home Activities Room we catch a whiff of fruit cake, pudding and sugar cookies baking and instantly feel we’re in a different time and place. It evokes warmth and happy nostalgic memories. [Westmeath]

Spooktacular Fun

Residents of Ennis Nursing Home absolutely love playing skittles - laughter and smiles always ensue. Such a fantastic activity and therapy to help with keeping fit and having fun. Play on Gerry. [Ennis, Co Clare]

Keeping Active

Residents of Ennis Nursing Home absolutely love playing skittles - laughter and smiles always ensue. Such a fantastic activity and therapy to help with keeping fit and having fun. Play on Gerry. [Ennis, Co Clare]

Joyous Photo

Liam and Donald from Lakes Nursing Home are always busy from making cookies to decorating. They are always on the go. [Killaloe, Co Clare]

Here Comes Santa Claus!

Adare & District Memory Care Centre Christmas party was a hoot - as they had all been SO good Santa came back to visit a second time during the holidays. Joy of Joys, we want Christmas to last all year round. Such a joyful evening surrounded by family and friends. [Adare, Co Limerick]